No offer of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS DISCLAIMER

This communication contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements are based on TiVo’s current expectations, estimates and projections about the expected date of closing of the proposed transaction and the potential benefits thereof, its business and industry, management’s beliefs and certain assumptions made by TiVo and Xperi, all of which are subject to change. In this context, forward-looking statements often address expected future business and financial performance and financial condition, and often contain words such as “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “could,” “seek,” “see,” “will,” “may,” “would,” “might,” “potentially,” “estimate,” “continue,” “expect,” “target,” similar expressions or the negatives of these words or other comparable terminology that convey uncertainty of future events or outcomes. All forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, and are not guarantees of future results, such as statements about the consummation of the proposed transaction and the anticipated benefits thereof. These and other forward-looking statements, including the failure to consummate the proposed transaction or to make or take any filing or other action required to consummate the transaction on a timely matter or at all, are not guarantees of future results and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in such statements and, therefore, you should not place undue reliance on any such statements and caution must be exercised in relying on forward-looking statements. Important risk factors that may cause such a difference include, but are not limited to: (i) the completion of the proposed transaction on anticipated terms and timing, including obtaining shareholder and regulatory approvals, anticipated tax treatment, unforeseen liabilities and other conditions to the completion of the transaction; (ii) failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, including as a result of delay in completing the transaction or integrating the businesses of TiVo and Xperi; (iii) potential litigation relating to the proposed transaction that could be instituted against TiVo, Xperi or their respective directors; (iv) the risk that disruptions from the proposed transaction will harm TiVo’s or Xperi’s business, including current plans and operations; (v) the ability of TiVo or Xperi to retain and hire key personnel; (vi) potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the proposed transaction; (vii) uncertainty as to the long-term value of HoldCo common stock; (viii) legislative, regulatory and economic developments affecting TiVo’s and Xperi’s businesses; (ix) general economic and market developments and conditions; (x) the evolving legal, regulatory and tax regimes under which TiVo and Xperi operate; (xi) potential business uncertainty, including changes to existing business relationships, during the pendency of the proposed transaction that could affect TiVo’s and/or Xperi’s financial performance; (xii) restrictions during the pendency of the proposed transaction that may impact TiVo’s or Xperi’s ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions; (xiii) unpredictability and severity of catastrophic events, including, but not limited to, acts of terrorism or outbreak of war or hostilities, as well as TiVo’s and Xperi’s response to any of the aforementioned factors; (xiv) failure to receive the approval of the stockholders of TiVo and/or Xperi; and (xv) any plans regarding a potential separation of the combined business. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction. While the list of factors presented here is, and the list of factors presented in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus will be, considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on TiVo’s or Xperi’s consolidated financial condition, results of operations, or liquidity. Neither TiVo nor Xperi assumes any obligation to publicly provide revisions or updates to any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, should circumstances change, except as otherwise required by securities and other applicable laws.

<sup>1</sup> RBC Capital Markets is a brand name for the capital markets business of Royal Bank of Canada and its affiliates.

This Letter constitutes a supplement to the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter and “customary joinder documentation” as contemplated by Paragraph 1 of the Commitment Letter and sets forth the agreement of the Initial Commitment Parties, the Companies, Barclays Bank PLC (“Barclays” or, in its capacity as a joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner for the Term Facility, the “Joining Arranger”) and Barclays (in its capacity as an Initial Lender in respect of the Term Facility, the “Joining Lender” and, together with the “Joining Arranger”, collectively, the “Joining Party”) regarding the joinder of the Joining Party to the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter to act in the roles specified below and to provide the portion of the commitments under the Commitment Letter specified below and to be entitled to the applicable portion of the fees set forth in the Fee Letter on the terms set forth therein. The Companies agree that the Joining Party may perform its responsibilities hereunder through its affiliates. The Joining Arranger shall constitute an Additional Arranger under the Commitment Letter and Fee Letter, and, except with respect to the reduction of the commitments of the Initial Commitment Parties in connection with the joinder of any Additional Arranger pursuant to Paragraph 1 of the Commitment Letter, all references therein to “Commitment Parties”, “we”, “us”, “our”, “party”, “parties hereto” and like terms shall also constitute references to the Joining Party, and the execution of this Letter constitutes the appointment of an Additional Arranger referred to in the Commitment Letter.

Barclays hereby commits, severally and not jointly, to provide 10% of the aggregate principal amount of the Term Facility on the terms contained in the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter and subject solely to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Paragraph 5 of the Commitment Letter. The commitments of the Initial Commitment Parties set forth in Paragraph 1 of the Commitment Letter in respect of the Term Facility are hereby reduced to 54% for Bank of America and 36% for Royal Bank, respectively. The commitments of the Initial Commitment Parties and the Joining Lender in respect of the Term Facility shall be several and not joint.
